Touch the Future With A New Leaf

By making a financial commitment to help those in need, you are not only giving back to the community and reducing your taxes. Your gift will provide a larger, long-term, impact on victims of domestic violence, homelessness and those who are underserved through the sustainability of programs at A New Leaf.

“Healthy agencies are critical to healthy communities. Serving the Valley for nearly 40 years and looking to the future, A New Leaf is recognized as a trusted leader in human service programming. Join us in helping them provide for the future by making your commitment today.”

– Frank Bennett Sr.
Board Member, 36 Years
Son of Co-Founder,
Dorothy B. Mitchell

– Barbara Bennett
A New Leaf Foundation
Board President

“Whether your passion is helping the homeless, victims of domestic violence or troubled youth, A New Leaf provides the comprehensive services necessary to ensure continued success. A planned gift in your will or trust ensures the sustainability of these important community-based programs.”

– Ginny Jontes
Community Volunteer
Board Member

“Your financial gift to A New Leaf’s Endowment Fund affords you the assurance that your gift remains intact year after year while the interest on your donation continually helps families and children served at A New Leaf shelters and programs.

“Make a difference today and carry it forward by leaving your legacy in the capable hands of A New Leaf.”

– Janis Merrill
Kyrene School District Attorney
Board Member, 31 Years

A New Leaf Foundation 501(c)3 exists exclusively to provide financial support to A New Leaf programs and services.

Giving Guide

*Helping Families... Changing Lives
For Generations to Come*

Helping Families...

YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW

A New Leaf homeless & domestic violence shelters and youth & community programs serve over 30,000 survivors, victims and individuals in need each year. Without the provision of supporters like you, these critical needs may not have been met.

“I had a chance to start over, fresh and new. It was a challenge for us all, but now I can provide for my children and the cycle of violence has stopped here.”

– Justine, 28-year-old Faith House Resident

Survivors of domestic violence and their children find safe haven, hope and new beginnings at Faith House and Autumn House Domestic Violence Shelters.

Changing Lives...

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

With gratitude for your past financial gifts, we open the door to new opportunities that will ensure long-term provision of critical programs and services while providing you the confidence that A New Leaf's mission of Helping Families... Changing Lives will continue to significantly impact the community for generations to come.

La Mesita Family Homeless Shelter and the East Valley Men's Center provide shelter and basic needs to those who are committed to gaining employment and becoming self-reliant.

“Knowing that I have a place to come home to and a hot meal every night, helps me get up the next morning and look for the job that I know is out there for me.”

– Kevin, 19-year-old East Valley Men's Center Resident

How You Can Help

Endowment Gifts

A New Leaf's Endowment Fund will grow over time, providing a long-term funding resource that ensures support year after year, regardless of the economy or current annual giving. With the principle of your gift remaining in tact for perpetuity, it is the gift that keeps on giving.

Endowment Gifts can be made several ways:

- An Outright Gift
- Multi-Year Pledges
- Planned Giving

Recognition

Endowment donors of $100,000 or more (10-year maximum pledge) may be recognized with a room naming opportunity in your honor. Major Gift Donors of up to $100,000 to the Endowment Fund may choose from personalized recognition areas both indoors and out that could include: the Low Ropes Course; meditation areas (labyrinth, gardens and gazebos); water features; sculpted, covered benches and more. We look forward to YOUR ideas as well, so that we honor you in the most meaningful way. Contact Torrie Taj for more information.

Your Gift Helps Us Grow

Legacy Gifts

As part of your estate planning process, Legacy gifts may be funded to A New Leaf Foundation at a later time. These gifts may be placed in the Endowment Fund where the principle is never touched or remain unrestricted where they will help support the greatest need or be restricted for a specific facility or program.

Legacy gifts can be funded in many ways, including but not limited to:

- A Bequest in your Will or Trust
- Life Insurance
- Charitable Remainder Trust
- Gift Annuity
- Retirement Plan Funds

Recognition

Legacy pledges of $10,000 or more may be recognized on A New Leaf Foundation's "Legacy Giving Tree" donor wall. Donors become life-long members of the Foundation's Legacy Society.
